The Honorable Letitia James
Attorney General
Office of the New York State Attorney General
The Capitol
Albany, NY 12224

Dear Attorney General James:

The Committee on the Judiciary is conducting oversight of politically motivated prosecutions by state and local officials. Since last year, popularly elected prosecutors—who campaigned for office on the promise of prosecuting President Trump—engaged in an unprecedented abuse of prosecutorial authority: the indictment of a former President of the United States and current leading candidate for that office. New York County District Attorney (DANY) Alvin Bragg is engaged in one such politicized prosecution, which is being led in part by Matthew B. Colangelo, a former prosecutor in your office and subsequent senior Justice Department official in the Biden administration. Given the perception that the Justice Department is assisting in District Attorney Bragg’s politicized prosecution, we write to request information and documents related to Mr. Colangelo’s employment at the New York Attorney General’s Office.

Mr. Colangelo’s recent employment history demonstrates his obsession with investigating a person rather than prosecuting a crime.<sup>1</sup> At the New York Attorney General’s Office, Mr. Colangelo—who, for some time, held the title of Chief Counsel for Federal Initiatives<sup>2</sup>—ran investigations into President Trump,<sup>3</sup> leading “a wave of state litigation against Trump administration policies.”<sup>4</sup> On January 20, 2021, the first day of the Biden Administration, Mr. Colangelo began serving as the Acting Associate Attorney General—the number three official at the Justice Department.<sup>5</sup> Upon the confirmation of Associate Attorney General Vanita Gupta, Mr. Colangelo then served as the Principal Deputy Associate Attorney General.<sup>6</sup> In December 2022, District Attorney Bragg “beefed up [his] office” by hiring Mr. Colangelo to fill the void left by the departure of politicized line prosecutors Mark Pomerantz and Carey Dunne.<sup>7</sup> District Attorney Bragg hired Mr. Colangelo to “jump-start” his office’s investigation of President Trump, reportedly due to Mr. Colangelo’s “history of taking on Donald J. Trump and his family business.”<sup>8</sup> Mr. Colangelo is now a lead prosecutor in President Trump’s trial.

District Attorney Bragg’s prosecution concerns federal subject matter that is identical to a matter that the Justice Department closed in 2018, raising concerns that a state-level prosecutor is seeking to relitigate an issue on which the federal government previously declined prosecution. In addition, Bragg’s prosecution relies heavily on the testimony of his star witness, Michael Cohen, a convicted felon with a demonstrable bias against President Trump.<sup>9</sup> Cohen pleaded guilty to lying to Congress in 2018.<sup>10</sup> In 2019, when he testified before the Democrat-led House Committee on Oversight and Reform in a hearing orchestrated by a longtime Democrat activist to aid their fruitless investigation into President Trump, Cohen lied again—six times.<sup>11</sup> In the years since, Cohen has been vocal about his deeply personal animus toward President Trump.<sup>12</sup>

District Attorney Bragg’s politicized prosecution of President Trump has serious consequences for federal interests.<sup>13</sup> The fact that a former senior Biden Justice Department official—whose previous employment consisted of leading “a wave of state litigation against Trump administration policies”<sup>14</sup>—is now leading the prosecution of President Biden’s chief political rival only adds to the perception that the Biden Justice Department is politicized and weaponized. Accordingly, we ask that you provide the following documents and information:

1. All documents and communications for the period January 1, 2017, to January 20, 2021, between or among Mr. Colangelo and any employee, agent, or representative of
